News

Holiday Cheer and Giving

Axtell students participated in a number of events to build community and support for those in need. KAYS and STUCO provided families in need with gifts for this holiday season. Students in grades PK-12 participated in a Christmas Story read-a-long, where older students were paired with younger students to read Christmas stories to each other for 30 minutes on Wednesday, December 15th. Enjoy some of our pictures from that event! It was great to see relationships building across grade levels in a fun and relaxed atmosphere. Students also helped teachers with a door decorating contest, and our top 3 winners, voted for by STUCO, were highlighted in local newspapers. Elementary students went downtown for a Christmas carol sing-a-long to share Christmas joy with our local businesses.
