

Power School

- Power School is a tool utilized by students and parents to monitor student grades.
- It is used for students to monitor missing and late assignments.
- It is also used by parents to monitor lunch account balances.
- Parents can set up weekly or biweekly email reports to help monitor student success.